SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

MONDAY, JAN. 21
1-3 P.M., ACADEMY HALL AUDITORIUM
Embrace the Dream Diversity Week Celebration Kickoff
Keynote Address by Dr. Shirley Ann Jackson & the Music of the Bethel Baptist Choir

The Community Advocates invite you to enjoy refreshments while socializing with faculty, staff, students, and members of the community. President Shirley Ann Jackson will deliver the keynote address and kickoff the week’s events in celebration of the birthday of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The Bethel Baptist Choir will sing favorite gospel songs.

MONDAY, JAN. 21
TIME & LOCATION TBA
7th Annual Alpha Phi Alpha “Then & Now” Discussion

Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity invites you to an open discussion on the standing of Dr. King’s dream today, followed by a reception.

TUESDAY, JAN. 22
7:30 P.M., DCC Room 389
UPAC Speakers Forum presents
“Toto - We’re Not in Kansas Anymore”

Dr. Maura Cullen, Educational Consultant on Social Justice and Educational Consultant, invites you to a lively and vigorous intellectual discussion about these critical issues.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 23
7:50 P.M., UNION 1202
“Welcoming Community by Welcoming Diversity Workshop”

Join RHA and FYE for this interactive NCBI workshop. The workshop is designed to promote awareness and increase sensitivity to the many similarities and differences among individuals and groups in our society.

This workshop helps participants to:
* Celebrate their similarities and differences
* Identify the misinformation that they have learned about other groups
* Recognize the internalized negative feelings and behaviors they direct towards members of their own groups
* Claim pride in their own group identity
* Learn about the personal impact of discrimination through the telling of stories
* Be empowered by learning concrete tools for effectively interrupting prejudicial remarks, jokes, slurs, and behaviors.

THURSDAY, JAN. 24
7 P.M., LOCATION TBA
Office of Minority Student Affairs & College Science and Technology Entry Program presents
“Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community”

A panel discussion featuring author and activist Barbara Smith, Albany Law School Professor Anthony Farley and author Debra Dickerson

In 1967, Martin Luther King, Jr. gave a speech that led to his last book. Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community. The book speaks to the issues that were facing the African American community and United States during one of the nation’s most turbulent times. Many of the issues addressed in the book still face our nation. Join us in a lively and vigorous intellectual discussion about these critical issues.

SATURDAY, JAN. 26
9 A.M.-4 P.M., CHAPEL + CULTURAL CENTER
Community Service Day - The Peace Crane

Help create the Peace Crane, a project inspired by the story of Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes and designed to honor Dr. King’s Dream of Peace. A victim of the bombing of Hiroshima, young Sadako began to fold 1000 origami paper cranes to symbolize her courage and hope that she would get well. High school students and staff from the Science Technology Entry Program will host this community initiative, in collaboration with the C+CC and School of Architecture students. To participate, come to the C+CC at 9 a.m. to learn how to make and weave origami paper cranes into one large sculpted Peace Crane that will remain on display through the spring as a reminder to all of Dr. King’s Dream.

[Participant donations of canned food will be welcome and given to local food pantries.]

TUESDAY, JAN. 22
9 a.m. “Awakenings” (1954-1956)

“Fighting Back” (1957-1962)
1 p.m. “Mississippi: Is This America?” (1962-1964) “Bridge to Freedom” (1965)

UPAC Speakers Forum presents
“Toto - We’re Not in Kansas Anymore”

Dr. Maura Cullen, Educational Consultant on Social Justice and Educational Consultant, invites you to a lively and vigorous intellectual discussion about these critical issues.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

MONDAY, JAN. 21
1-3 P.M., ACADEMY HALL AUDITORIUM
Embrace the Dream Diversity Week Celebration Kickoff
Keynote Address by Dr. Shirley Ann Jackson & the Music of the Bethel Baptist Choir

The Community Advocates invite you to enjoy refreshments while socializing with faculty, staff, students, and members of the community. President Shirley Ann Jackson will deliver the keynote address and kickoff the week’s events in celebration of the birthday of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The Bethel Baptist Choir will sing favorite gospel songs.

MONDAY, JAN. 21
TIME & LOCATION TBA
7th Annual Alpha Phi Alpha “Then & Now” Discussion

Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity invites you to an open discussion on the standing of Dr. King’s dream today, followed by a reception.

TUESDAY, JAN. 22
7:30 P.M., DCC Room 389
UPAC Speakers Forum presents
“Toto - We’re Not in Kansas Anymore”

Dr. Maura Cullen, Educational Consultant on Social Justice and Educational Consultant, invites you to a lively and vigorous intellectual discussion about these critical issues.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 23
7:50 P.M., UNION 1202
“Welcoming Community by Welcoming Diversity Workshop”

Join RHA and FYE for this interactive NCBI workshop. The workshop is designed to promote awareness and increase sensitivity to the many similarities and differences among individuals and groups in our society.

This workshop helps participants to:
* Celebrate their similarities and differences
* Identify the misinformation that they have learned about other groups
* Recognize the internalized negative feelings and behaviors they direct towards members of their own groups
* Claim pride in their own group identity
* Learn about the personal impact of discrimination through the telling of stories
* Be empowered by learning concrete tools for effectively interrupting prejudicial remarks, jokes, slurs, and behaviors.

THURSDAY, JAN. 24
7 P.M., LOCATION TBA
Office of Minority Student Affairs & College Science and Technology Entry Program presents
“Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community”

A panel discussion featuring author and activist Barbara Smith, Albany Law School Professor Anthony Farley and author Debra Dickerson

In 1967, Martin Luther King, Jr. gave a speech that led to his last book. Where Do We Go From Here: Chaos or Community. The book speaks to the issues that were facing the African American community and United States during one of the nation’s most turbulent times. Many of the issues addressed in the book still face our nation. Join us in a lively and vigorous intellectual discussion about these critical issues.

SATURDAY, JAN. 26
9 A.M.-4 P.M., CHAPEL + CULTURAL CENTER
Community Service Day - The Peace Crane

Help create the Peace Crane, a project inspired by the story of Sadako and the Thousand Paper Cranes and designed to honor Dr. King’s Dream of Peace. A victim of the bombing of Hiroshima, young Sadako began to fold 1000 origami paper cranes to symbolize her courage and hope that she would get well. High school students and staff from the Science Technology Entry Program will host this community initiative, in collaboration with the C+CC and School of Architecture students. To participate, come to the C+CC at 9 a.m. to learn how to make and weave origami paper cranes into one large sculpted Peace Crane that will remain on display through the spring as a reminder to all of Dr. King’s Dream.

[Participant donations of canned food will be welcome and given to local food pantries.]