

RPI RELIEF SUPPORT FOR JAPAN

SILENT AUCTION TO BENEFIT THE RPI RELIEF FOR JAPAN

- Wednesday, March 30, Thursday, March 31
- Viewing hours: 10 am to 6 pm
- Bidding closes at 7:30 pm on Thursday
- Where: Student Union Welcome Lobby

RECEPTION TO HONOR THE ARTISTS

- Thursday, March 31, 6 – 8 pm

WELCOME LOBBY OF THE STUDENT UNION

CORNER OF 15TH STREET & SAGE AVE. For info -- <http://doso.rpi.edu>

SOGETSU IKEBANA, the Art of Japanese Floral Arrangement:

This program is presented by the New York State Capital District Japanese Study Group for the benefit of the Japanese people affected by the 2011 earthquake and tsunami. Come early and watch artisans create their arrangements. Special floral arrangements, the flowers for which have all been donated, will be on sale for $20 each, with all sales going to RPI RELIEF: SUPPORT FOR JAPAN.

ARTISTS OF THE SHELNUTT GALLERY

* An art space dedicated to Diversity and Eclecticism

A collection of small works donated by the artists who have exhibited for the past decade at the Shelnutt.

This will be a silent auction to contribute to the RPI RELIEF SUPPORT FOR JAPAN.

Honored artists include: Caren Canier, Linda Cross, Adrienne Cullum, Francalise Dawkins, Lamerol Gatewood, Kico Govantes, George Hofmann, Ayriel Hunt, Femi J. Johnson, Ramon Lascano, Virginia McNeice, David Miller, Sandra Miller, Vincent Pomilio, George Simmons, Arleen Targan, Tony Thompson, Sergio Gonzales Tornero, Stephen Tyson, Dan Udell, Ron Walton, Frank Wimberley.

“The Artists of the Shelnutt Gallery - A Collection of Small Works” A silent auction, works will be available for viewing & bidding over both days, with all sales going to RPI RELIEF:SUPPORT FOR JAPAN. For info, Mary Udell, (518) 851-7044; dudell2020@gmail.com. Payment / cash or checks.

TO BENEFIT JAPANESE FAMILIES THROUGH AMERICARES, SAVE THE CHILDREN & RED CROSS