J-1 Language Requirement & Process with Review of Services
J-1 Process

- Department identifies Scholar to come to RPI
- Request is submitted to ISSS.
- ISSS forwards proposed Scholar activity and information to Export Control.
- After Export Control approves scholar, ISSS reviews J-1 application, and determines category.
- Process DS2019, department is notified for pick up.
- J-1 arrives to RPI, checks into ISSS with appropriate documents & attends J-1 orientation.
- J-1 check in and orientation is required by U.S. Department of State.
Language Requirement
J-1 Scholars & Students

• 22 CFR 62.10(a)
  (a) Selection of exchange visitors. Sponsors must establish and utilize a method to screen and select prospective exchange visitors to ensure that they are eligible for program participation, and that:

  (1) The program is suitable to the exchange visitor's background, needs, and experience; and

  (2) The exchange visitor possesses sufficient proficiency in the English language, as determined by an objective measurement of English language proficiency, successfully to participate in his or her program and to function on a day-to-day basis. A sponsor must verify an applicant's English language proficiency through a recognized English language test, by signed documentation from an academic institution or English language school, or through a documented interview conducted by the sponsor either in-person or by videoconferencing, or by telephone if videoconferencing is not a viable option.
Determining English Language Proficiency

• Effective January 5, 2015, the new Subpart A rule will require a prospective exchange visitor to possess "sufficient proficiency in the English language, as determined by an objective measurement of English language proficiency, successfully to participate in his or her program and to function on a day-to-day basis. A sponsor must verify an applicant’s English language proficiency through a recognized English language test, by signed documentation from an academic institution or English language school, or through a documented interview conducted by the sponsor either in-person or by videoconferencing, or by telephone if videoconferencing is not a viable option."
