

Electronic Proposal Approval Process

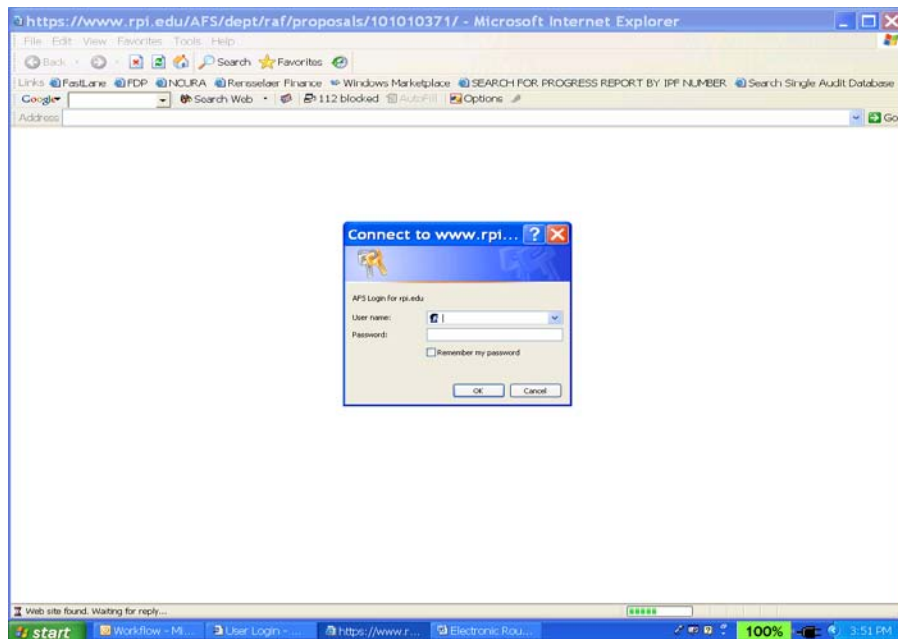

Starting September 6, 2005, Research Administration and Finance will begin piloting an electronic routing process for obtaining proposal approvals. This application replaces the current hard copy circulation process and is accomplished via email. This process was initiated last year by Research Administration and Finance under the leadership of Lester Gerhardt, and has been developed and implemented by IACS under the direction of Jeff Miner.

As a Principal Investigator or Required Approver, here's what you do:

NOTE: Updated 3/2013 – the email contains link to a secure web page to approve/disapprove, no authentication necessary. Email replies are no longer required or available.

- You will receive an email with the following header information:
From: Research Administration
Subject: PI: Name – Proposal for Review
- To review the proposal related documents, click on:

Repository and enter your RCS user ID and password.

- You will be linked to the repository:
