Since you last filed Form W-4 with your employer did you...
• Marry or divorce?
• Gain or lose a dependent?
• Change your name?

Were there major changes to...
• Your nonwage income (interest, dividends, capital gains, etc.)?
• Your family wage income (you or your spouse started or ended a job)?
• Your itemized deductions?
• Your tax credits?

If you answered “YES”... To any of these questions or you owed extra tax when you filed your last return, you may need to file a new Form W-4. See your employer for a copy of Form W-4 or call the IRS at 1-800-829-3676. Now is the time to check your withholding. For more details, get Publication 919, How Do I Adjust My Tax Withholding?, or use the Withholding Calculator at www.irs.gov/individuals on the IRS website.
Don’t guess whether you qualify for the EITC. Know!

The EITC is a tax credit for people who work hard and don’t make much money. You must meet certain requirements to be eligible.
