REGULATIONS

RENSSELAER POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE
From: Midshipman Commanding Officer To: Ship’s Company

Subj: NROTCU RPI SHIPSCOMPINST 1533.1 MIDSHIPMEN REGULATIONS

1. Purpose: To revise, formalize, and promulgate the Midshipmen Regulations (MIDREGS) for the organization and operation of midshipmen assigned to Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps Unit Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (NROTCU RPI).

2. Discussion:

   a. NROTCU RPI is dedicated to imbuing its midshipmen with the qualities and skills necessary to succeed as Naval Officers. During their future careers in the Navy and Marine Corps, adherence to regulations is a skill that will ensure that actions are carried out in the required manner. The MIDREGS introduces midshipmen to the practice of following such regulations.

   b. The MIDREGS govern much of what is done in this unit and represent the basic guidelines for its midshipmen; it is imperative that every midshipman not only be familiar with the MIDREGS but also have a thorough and complete understanding of all knowing contained herein.

3. Action:

   a. The Midshipmen CMC shall distribute this instruction via email and ensure all midshipmen have read it completely immediately upon its approval by Captain Daniel D. Arensmeyer, Commanding Officer NROTCU RPI.

   b. Immediately upon being published and distributed to the Ship’s Company, this document shall take effect.

CHAPTER 1 - HISTORY, MISSION, AND HONOR CODE

101. HISTORY OF NAVAL ROTC UNIT RENSSELAER POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE

a. In September 1941, approximately three months prior to the bombing of Pearl Harbor, the RPI NROTC Unit was chartered under the leadership of veteran CAPT Clifford G. Richardson, USN. This was by no means the beginning of a new relationship; rather, it was an evolution in a partnership born in the previous century between Rensselaer and the Naval Service.

b. The technological demands of a Navy entering the Age of Steam made RPI graduates valuable commodities in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. It was in 1941, with war spreading worldwide, that the entire first floor of the Greene Building became home to the Naval ROTC Unit. It was complete with offices, a classroom, exhibits, gear storage, a library, and an ordnance maintenance facility. To top it all off, a 4-inch naval gun was placed outside for training. In the mire of World War II, RPI virtually became a fully-fledged Naval training command, dedicated to the instruction of both officer candidates and enlisted personnel through its Navy Flight Preparatory School. By 1945, nearly 70 percent of RPI’s 932 undergraduate students were prospective Naval service members.

c. With the post war realization that a significant and well-trained officer pool was a peacetime necessity, not a wartime expedient, the Naval ROTC program would continue to prosper, yielding several distinguished graduates. Among these are:
   - Rear Admiral Lewis Barton Combs, USN (Ret.) '50
   - VADM Crawford Easterling, USN (Ret.) '51
   - RADM James G. Storms, USN (Ret.) '54
   - BGEN Richard A. Gustafson, USMC (Ret.) '57
   - ADM Ronald J. Zlatoper, USN - CINCPAC (Ret.) '63
   - LT Miroslav Zilberman, USN '03

   These and many other RPI Naval ROTC graduates would serve in the Korean, Vietnam, Persian Gulf, and Global War on Terrorism conflicts.

d. Today’s NROTC unit at RPI has condensed to a close-knit group of approximately 100 midshipmen and has made its home in the Alumni Sports and Recreation Center (Armory) where it continues to train high quality Naval and Marine Corps Officers in facilities tailored to the Navy’s learning objectives for the unit. NROTCU RPI’s legacy began with those graduates who harnessed the power of steam at the beginning of the century. It was expanded by those who helped propel the Navy and Marine Corps team through their noted contributions to the nuclear propulsion program and development of current weapons systems. NROTCU RPI graduates continue to provide technical prowess and bold leadership to Sailors and Marines on a daily basis.
102. MISSION AND GOALS

a. Mission. The NROTC Unit at RPI will execute a progressive and comprehensive training program aimed at educating, motivating, and screening individuals in order to deliver the most qualified individuals for commissioned service in the fleet.

b. Unit Vision. To establish the Naval ROTC unit as a beacon at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute where the strength of commitment shared by all midshipmen will foster an environment of duty and loyalty, thus exemplifying the Navy’s core values of honor, courage, and commitment.

c. Unit Motto. It’s Our Legacy... Define It, Shape It, Make It Happen!

d. Goals. The primary objectives of the NROTC Program are to provide the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps with commissioned officers through an officer ascension program and to provide adequate naval preparedness to these officers by instilling in midshipmen the purposes, ideals, and achievements of both the Navy and Marine Corps. These objectives are approached by imbuing NROTC students with:

1. A strong sense of personal integrity, honor, and individual responsibility.

2. An understanding of the fundamental concepts and principles of Naval Science.

3. A basic understanding of associated professional knowledge.

4. An appreciation for the requirements of national security.

5. An educational background which will allow the midshipmen to undertake successfully in later periods of their careers advanced or continuing education in a field of application of interest to the Naval Service.

103. THE CONCEPT OF HONOR

a. The Concept of Honor. Never before has the individual character of the American Sailor and Marine weighed so heavily on the calculus of potential conflict. For all the intrinsic excellence of our technology, experience demonstrates that its successful employment in battle continues to depend upon the integrity, courage, commitment, and professional excellence of those called upon to bring it to bear in defense of freedom. With ruthless efficiency and finality, the awesome violence of modern warfare distinguishes forces filled with these attributes from those rendered hollow by their absence. Unlike previous conflicts in history, technology no longer permits us the luxury of awaiting the first battle to determine whether our forces are ready.
The pace of conflict will afford us little, if any, chance to profit from our mistakes. Military systems, which often operate under extreme duress, are built on a foundation of absolute trust and fidelity. Midshipmen do not learn this when they report to the fleet; they take it to the fleet with them.

b. The Honor Code. The obligations of the midshipman are succinctly stated in the following honor code: A midshipman does not lie, cheat, or steal. The foundation of the honor code should help midshipmen make the difficult decisions they will face on a daily basis. The code provides guidance to midshipmen on how to live by and maintain the highest ethical standards. Violations of the Honor Code will be dealt with within the Chain of Command and may lead to a command Performance Review Board (PRB), and separation from the program.

c. MIDN Honor Code

I am a Midshipman in the NROTC program and I am a person of integrity.
I take the initiative, I take pride in everything I do, and I put the well-being of my shipmates before myself.
I do not take the easy way out, nor do I require praise for my actions.
I understand that the trust and confidence invested in me by the Navy and Marine Corps is a privilege not a right and that I must always work to maintain this privilege.

104. CORE VALUES

a. The Concept of Core Values. Throughout its history, the naval service has successfully met all of its challenges. From the early days of naval service with its founding in 1775, certain core values have persisted through the years. These bedrock principles are "honor, courage, and commitment."

b. Core Values. Primary Core Values which every Midshipman and Naval Officer should possess include:

   (1) Honor. This encompasses the ideals of
       (a) Honesty
       (b) Integrity
       (c) Responsibility

   (2) Courage. This encompasses the ideals of
       (a) Competence
       (b) Teamwork
       (c) Concern or respect for people

   (3) Commitment. This encompasses the ideals of
       (a) Loyalty
       (b) Patriotism
       (c) Valor

CHAPTER 3- MIDSHIPMAN EVALUATIONS AND APTITUDE DETERMINATION

301. GENERAL

a. The Fitness Report (FITREP) is a standardized method for evaluating officer and senior enlisted aptitude in the fleet. The contents of an individual’s FITREP carry extreme significance for that individual’s career, whether they continue to serve in the Navy or Marine Corps, or separate after a single term. Additionally, FITREPs are used to evaluate the performance of midshipmen. Your midshipmen FITREPs are not retained after commissioning, but remain in your record until then. FITREPs are an integral part of the training process for identifying and correcting deficient performance, determining class ranking, and national ranking for service assignment. Finally, the process of generating, reviewing, and approving the FITREPs of your subordinates is a duty you will have to perform regularly as an officer, and this process is therefore incorporated into the duties and responsibilities of all Midshipmen Officers and Chiefs.

b. Two specific areas of performance are evaluated:

(1) Academic performance as measured against the individual’s college requirements and standards, NROTC Unit, RPI program requirements, and individual potential. Due to academic privacy concerns, this area shall be evaluated only by your class advisor and the Unit Staff.

(2) Aptitude for service as a naval officer as reflected in performance during Ship’s Company and Unit activities. This area shall be evaluated by both your Advisor and your Midshipman Chain of Command.

c. The importance of generating a detailed, concise, professional, unbiased, and, above all, honest evaluation of your subordinates cannot be understated. Therefore, it is expected that all midshipmen holding positions of leadership closely monitor the performance of their subordinates throughout the semester.

302. EVALUATION RESPONSIBILITIES

a. Each midshipman shall be evaluated twice per semester.

(1) All Midshipman Officers shall generate mid-semester evaluations for their immediate subordinates using the FITREP format, and counsel their subordinates regarding these evaluations. Mid-semester evaluations shall be completed by the date appointed by the MCO. They shall not be routed through the Chain of Command, but shall remain between the Officer and the subordinate. However, it is entirely appropriate and expected for Midshipmen Officers to consult their Chiefs for input when generating these evaluations. Midshipmen will sign for completion of mid-semester counseling in the mid-term counseling block on their FITREP upon completion of the semester.

(2) Final evaluations shall be generated for all midshipmen by their immediate supervisors. Midshipman Officers shall informally counsel their immediate subordinates on the contents of their FITREPs, and then route their FITREPs up the Midshipman Chain of Command. The MXO shall approve FITREPs for all midshipmen, and the MCO shall approve FITREPs for all Midshipman Chiefs and Officers. Deadlines for each step of this process shall be established by the MCO.

b. Once approved by the Midshipman Chain of Command, all final FITREPs shall be passed to the Unit Staff. After the semester is over and your grades are available, your class advisor will modify your FITREP by incorporating performance data to which other midshipmen are not privy, primarily your academics. Generally, these modifications are minor, and almost never affect the verbal comments of your Midshipman Chain of Command. Your advisor will then add two or three more lines of commentary, and calculate your class rank.

c. Your advisor ranks you against your classmates based on the numerical average of your final FITREP scores. Once complete, all of the FITREPs in your class are reviewed by the Unit Executive Officer and then submitted to the Unit Commanding Officer for final approval and signature. You will be counseled by your class advisor regarding your final FITREP and class rank and the beginning of the following semester.

d. All midshipmen may submit a written rebuttal statement regarding their FITREP, which shall be affixed to the FITREP and distributed to the Unit CO, XO, your class advisor, and applicable members of the Midshipman Chain of Command.

e. A final FITREP score of 2.0 or lower is considered unsatisfactory by program standards and shall result in the convening of a Performance Review Board for military aptitude.

303. EVALUATION FORM EXPLAINED

Evaluations are conducted using the NROTC Evaluation & Counseling Record shown in Appendix 3-1. Evaluations will be prepared using NAVFIT98A software, available at http://www.bupers.navy.mil. No spelling, grammatical or punctuation errors will be tolerated. Instructions for completing the blocks the evaluator is responsible for is as follows:

Block 1- Name
Enter the midshipmen's name that you are evaluating here in the format: <last name>, <first name> <middle initial> Capitalize all letters. If the midshipman does not have a middle name, enter NMN
e.g. SMITH, JOHN NMN
Block 2- Grade/Rate
MIDN or OC as appropriate

Block 4- SSN
Enter the midshipmen's social security number here. The dashes will be entered automatically. Enter the last four digits only, the other spaces are to be occupied by zeroes.

Block 9- Date Reported
Enter the date that the midshipman reported to the unit. Use 25 August of the year in which they reported if the exact date is not known. If they were a college programmer, be as accurate as possible with this date.

e.g. 16AUG12 (YYMMMDD)

Block 20- Physical Readiness
Most midshipmen are P. The letter indicates whether the midshipman passed the PRT. P is for "Passed", F is for "Failed".

Block 29- Primary/Collateral/Watch Standing duties.
Enter the midshipman's billet if in the box. Outside the box, enter their collateral duties, and watch standing duties. Outside the box, follow each duty with the number of months they have performed it.

e.g. Athletics PRI: ATHLETICS DM; COLL: WDO-3; PFA: 13-1

Block 30- Date Counseled
Enter the date you actually reviewed the counseling report with the midshipman in YYMMMDD format.

Block 31- Counselor
Enter your name here.

e.g. DOE, J M

Block 32- Signature of Individual counseled
If the report is printed, have the midshipmen sign here to confirm that they were counseled.

Blocks 33-39, Check the block in each category that best describes the performance of the midshipman being evaluated in specific areas.
Guidelines are as follows:

1.0 - Below standards/not progressing or UNSAT in any one standard
2.0 - Does not meet all 3.0 standards
3.0 - Meets all 3.0 standards
4.0 - Exceeds most 3.0 standards
5.1 - Meets overall criteria and specific standards for 5.0.
   Standards are not all inclusive.
Block 40- Recommendations
Enter in two billets this midshipman should be considered for next semester. Put one on the left of the vertical line with the other on the right of it. For graduating seniors, leave blank.

Block 41- Comments.
Prepare the remarks carefully. Refer to the person as “MIDN Smith”, for example, not “John”. State and support with examples, observations on appearance, promptness, motivation, attitude, and performance. Mention special citations and awards. Where applicable, comment on leadership and managerial ability. Do not exaggerate or use excessive flowery descriptions or superlatives. Make no statements such as “MIDN Smith is destined for a brilliant Naval career” or “MIDN Smith is an outstanding Midshipman” without demonstrating these claims to be fact in the evaluation. Instead, point out specific strengths and weaknesses. Note development or decline in any areas over the semester. The remarks in this section should be clear, concise, and accurate. The truly outstanding midshipman should be called just that.

Midshipman Officers are to carefully screen all evaluation forms sent up the Chain of Command for compliance with this instruction. Evaluation forms failing to meet standards are to be returned to the writer for correction, THEY ARE NOT TO BE FORWARDED.
CHAPTER 4—CONDUCT AND APTITUDE

401. RESPONSIBILITIES OF NROTC STUDENTS

As midshipmen, we are held to a high standard. A midshipman who continually fails to meet standards is likely to be dis-enrolled from the program. These standards are enumerated in detail in Chapter 9, but the following is a brief list in order of precedence; the most important duties and responsibilities are listed first.

a. Be enrolled as a full time student (minimum of 12 credits per semester,) and graduate with a bachelor’s degree within four years (eight semesters). (Note: You are expected to know and meet the requirements for your academic major.)

b. Complete all NROTC Program required courses. (Note: You are expected to know what these are; your class advisor can assist you in finding out.)

c. Maintain a minimum Semester Grade Point Average of 2.5, and a minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average of 2.0.

d. Maintain a state of Physical Fitness/Readiness as required by your program, gender, and age group.

e. Attend and Participate in all mandatory Unit Events, unless you have a Special Request Chit approved by your Chain of Command to miss a particular event. See Appendix A for Example Chit.

f. Complete a minimum of 5 community service hours.

g. Execute, to the best of your ability, all additional duties in addition, responsibilities assigned to you.

Participation in a Varsity Sport is authorized, provided that you are able to meet the obligations listed above. Some leniency is granted to Varsity athletes in the granting of Special Request Chits; however, an approved Chit is still required to miss any mandatory Unit Event. Participation in extra-curricular activities in general is highly encouraged, again, provided you are meeting program standards.

402. SALUTING

a. All midshipmen in uniform are required to salute when appropriate. The junior person always initiates the salute.

b. While on campus, a salute shall be rendered when in uniform to commissioned officers of all branches of the Armed Forces and to midshipmen officers who are senior to the person concerned. A salute is rendered to all commissioned (not cadet or midshipman) officers regardless of whether the officer is in uniform or not!

c. A greeting shall be offered with the salute, such as “Good morning, sir”.
d. Six paces is the normal distance for initiating the salute.

e. Personnel acting as part of a formation do not normally salute; the person in charge of the formation salutes on behalf of the group.

f. Commissioned officers riding in privately owned vehicles will be rendered a salute as if they were walking.

g. Salutes are not exchanged when uncovered in the Naval Service, unless failure to return a salute might cause embarrassment to a member of another service that abides by different custom.

h. If unsure as to whether or not a salute is appropriate, the general rule is: “When in doubt, salute."

403. COURTESY TO COMMISSIONED OFFICERS.

a. All commissioned officers of all services are addressed by their rank and last name or by the term "sir" or "ma’am as appropriate. In addition, the word “sir” or “ma’am” should be added to answers to questions or directives from superiors, such as “yes sir” or “no ma’am”. “Aye aye, sir” is the affirmative response to an order, meaning “I understand and I will obey.”

b. When an officer ranking O-5 or above enters or leaves a room (other than the wardroom), “Attention on Deck!” shall be called by the first person to see that officer, and everyone in the room shall come to attention.

c. The following procedure shall be used by all midshipmen to enter the office of any commissioned officer:

   (1) Upon arrival at the office, knock loudly on the door or doorframe.

   (2) When directed, and only when directed, state your name and business in a military manner. For example: “Midshipman Smith reporting as ordered, Sir” or “Ma’am, I request to see you concerning drill.”

   (3) After stating your name and business, the officer will recognize you and direct you to come in, sit down, etc. If the officer does not tell you to sit or stand at ease, remain at attention in front of his or her desk.

   (4) When you have finished your business, come to attention in front of the officer’s desk. The officer will then dismiss you, at which point you will execute the appropriate facing movement and leave the office.

d. The following procedures shall be adhered to in the classroom for all Naval Science courses, unless the officer instructor indicates otherwise:
(1) When the officer instructor enters the classroom, the class shall cease all conversation and give the instructor an appropriate greeting.

(2) No smoking, beverages, or snacks are permitted in the classroom.

(3) The class will end only when the instructor dismisses it.

404. COURTESY TO ENLISTED PERSONNEL

Navy, Marine, Army, and Air Force enlisted personnel are addressed by their rank and last name.

405. COURTESY TO FELLOW MIDSHIPMEN AND CADETS

In general, the procedures for saluting and addressing commissioned officers shall apply to midshipmen and cadet officers of all ROTC units. Midshipman of a lower rank shall be addressed by the term “Mister/Miss” or “Midshipman” and their last name. Cadets of the Army and Air Force will be addressed as “Cadet” and their last name.

406. USING THE MIDSHIPMAN CHAIN OF COMMAND

a. The Chain of Command is a tool used throughout the military to facilitate efficient communication and mission accomplishment with a high level of redundancy, to ensure that the loss of a single individual does not result in mission failure. Being able to function within a formal command structure of this nature does not come easily, and you will need to apply a high level of thought and consideration to each decision you make and every answer you give to ensure you are doing so properly.

b. Orders are passed down the Chain, while requests and reports are passed up the Chain. At no point in either process should any link in the Chain be bypassed. In other words, a DO should not make a report directly to the MCO, and a DH should not issue an order to an individual Division member. However, the DH may issue an order to his or her entire Department.

c. Midshipmen at the same level in the Chain may pass requests and reports laterally between themselves, but may not give one another orders. If a member of one Division requires the support of another Division or Department to accomplish a task, the Division member should make the request to his or her DO, who shall decide whether or not the request is worthy. If so, the DO may speak directly to another DO within the same Department, or pass the request up to the DH if it involves another Department.

d. Chiefs and Senior Chiefs are NOT a direct link in the Chain of Command. They support their DO’s and DH’s, and may be granted authority to issue orders to their Division or Department on behalf of the DO or DH. A DO or DH may also specify that a particular report be made directly to the Chief or Senior Chief. A common example of this is mustering the Ship’s Company and reporting accountability.

e. As a general rule, all issues and disputes should be resolved at the lowest possible level in the Chain of Command.

f. If you feel unable to carry out an order issued by your superior, or if you have a legitimate complaint regarding preferential treatment or other form of misconduct by your superior, you should attempt to resolve your concern with your superior first. If that fails, then consult the midshipman or commissioned officer immediately above your superior in the Chain, and inform your superior of your intent to do so. All such conversations should take place in private; the utmost discretion should be used when making complaints.

407. THE WARDROOM

a. The following are general guidelines for conduct in a wardroom:

1. Avoid conversation about controversial topics, such as religion, politics, and members of the opposite sex.
2. Avoid “shop talk” when possible.
3. Be polite when guests are present. Attempt to make guests feel as welcome as possible.
4. Always remove your cover upon entering the wardroom.
5. The proper attire for being in the wardroom is the uniform of the day or Casual Civilian Attire discussed in article 701. PT gear should not be worn for extended periods of time in the wardroom.
6. During working hours, the volume on the television should be kept low enough as not to disturb the staff.

b. Magazines and papers should not be removed from the wardroom.

c. Obscenity, vulgarity, and off-color tales do not belong in an officer’s conversation at any time.

d. Unkind and unfavorable comments about other officers and opinions about superiors are not appropriate.

e. Do not rest your feet on the wardroom furniture.

f. Never draw a sword in the wardroom.

g. Do not lounge in the wardroom during working hours. What the Wardroom has to offer:
(1) Study Room and computer room (If a password for the computer network is needed, contact the webmaster)
(2) Library with textbooks and recreational books
(3) MWR Fridge for drinks and snacks
(4) Pool table, dart board, and television

408. WARDROOM DUTY OFFICER (WDO)

The WDO is the MIDN Commanding Officer’s direct representative after normal working hours. In the Commanding Officer’s absence, the WDO carries all of his authority. The WDO is intended to enhance the security and state of NROTCU RPI after hours, to provide MIDN a chance to train in watch standing procedures, and to maximize the use of the student’s time. See Appendix B for the SOP of the WDO.

409. MIDSHIPMAN SELF EXPRESSION

a. Midshipman participation in protests and demonstrations is not prohibited, provided the Midshipman portrays no public association between the United States Government or the Navy/Marines and the subject of the protest or demonstration. The Midshipman shall not be in uniform nor make it known that he or she is a member of the armed forces.

b. A Midshipman must consult with his or her Class Advisor before writing any articles for public dissemination which identify the Midshipman as a member of the NROTC, or that publicly represent the NROTC Unit or its activities in any way.

410. MISCELLANEOUS

a. Smoking on campus is not permitted.

b. Midshipmen shall not chew gum at any time while in uniform.

c. Midshipmen in uniform shall avoid public displays of affection.

d. Do not place hands in pockets when in uniform.

e. Assume appropriate posture and military bearing by standing erect, with square shoulders, chest out, and stomach in.

f. Rise and stand at attention whenever addressed or approached by a superior.

g. Appear neat, clean, and appropriately attired in both military and civilian dress.

h. Render honors to colors when the flag is being raised or lowered by standing at attention, and if in uniform, salute.

i. Maintain proper grooming standards even when school is not in session.
CHAPTER 5 – DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM

501. GENERAL

a. Naval discipline is designed to be neither burdensome nor constraining. It is composed of a set of rules for proper conduct to provide for the orderly administration of naval personnel. Self-discipline is the best discipline when it results in an attitude, on the part of the Midshipman, to carry out lawful orders with determination, to behave in a military manner, and to take pride in the Naval Service and in the Navy ROTC Unit.

b. Discipline is a two-edged sword. It provides for the recognition of an individual's excellent performance and for correction of performance that fails to meet the established standards. Punishment occurs not as a part of discipline, but rather as a result of a lack of discipline.

502. DISCIPLINE IN FRACTIONS

a. Class "B" Offenses

(1) Class "B" offenses involve minor infractions of rules and regulations. However, a second offense of this nature will force the chain of command to consider moving to a Class "A" offense.

(2) The following are examples of CLASS "B" OFFENSES:

i. Unauthorized absence (UA)

ii. Uniform discrepancies (improper, unclean, untidy or unserviceable, unauthorized alteration, exchange, sale, or wear unbecoming a Midshipman)

iii. Improper attire or personal untidiness

iv. Neglecting military or civilian property

v. Being derelict in performance of duties

vi. Disrespect to recognized authorities within the military

b. Class "A" Offenses

(1) Class "A" offenses are those which indicate a severe breach of discipline and/or moral standards, a hardened disregard or contempt for authority, an incorrigible lack of energy and purpose, a culpable lack of sense of responsibility, or actions that bring discredit upon the Naval Service.

(2) Class "A" offenses, by their nature, and without regard to other circumstances, subject the offender to possible immediate disenrollment from the NROTC program. A class "A" offense shall immediately result in a Midshipmen Review Board.

(3) The following are examples of CLASS "A" OFFENSES:
i. Unauthorized Absence (aggravated or repeated)
ii. Assault (includes personal combat)
iii. Failure to register for courses
iv. Theft or Fraud
v. Hazing
vi. Insubordination (Disobeying orders)
vii. Public intoxication viii. Underage drinking
ix. Moral offenses (sexual harassment, indecent exposure, etc.)
x. Obscenity (aggravated or repeated)
xii. Defacing or destroying property
xii. Security violation xiii. Failure to complete a watch (sleeping, leaving early)
xiv. Other major offenses
xv. Repeated class “B” Offenses

503. CORRECTIVE COUNSELING

a. If a Midshipman is lacking in motivation, neatness of appearance, or shows a general lack of military knowledge or courtesy, he/she should be counseled prior to taking a more formal corrective measure.

b. Counseling will be conducted by one of the Midshipman's chain of command. For minor first offenses, verbal counseling shall be conducted by the Midshipman’s immediate superior (Appendix C.1). This shall consist of a one-on-one session characterized by active participation on both sides to encourage feedback and establish the problem more clearly. This active feedback is essential to ensure the noticed offenses are cleared up and that the counseled Midshipman learns from his/her mistakes.

c. For a second class “B” offense, the Midshipman will be counseled by his or her SCPO (or Department Head if in an officer billet). This is more formal than verbal counseling; it is still non-punitive and discussion-oriented. The NROTCU RPI written counseling report is available from the CMC (Appendix C.2). This should be copied with one copy kept on file in the MCO/MXO’s office, one copied to the Midshipman’s advisor, and the other given to the Midshipman for his or her records. All counseling reports shall be kept on file for the duration of the Midshipman’s affiliation at NROTCU RPI. All counseling sessions need to be documented in case the actions show a pattern that requires further action and the case shall be referred to a Midshipman Review Board (MRB).

d. For a third class “B” offense or one class “A” offense, over an academic semester, a Midshipman Review Board will be convened if it is deemed necessary. The MCO can also convene a Midshipman Review Board in an instance where he or she deems necessary.

e. All class “B” or Class “A” offenses that deem a written counseling shall be accompanied by the written counseling form.
504. CONVENING A MIDSHIPMAN REVIEW BOARD (MRB)

a. Purpose: The Midshipman Review Board (MRB) functions as a means to determine the cause of performance related issues regarding midshipmen. It has a formal setting where senior midshipmen can consider the circumstances of the midshipman and the midshipman’s Chain of Command and gain a complete understanding of the causes of the midshipman’s problems. The MRB should foster a setting of open communication where issues can be addressed and the board can determine a solid recommendation that will enable the midshipman to perform at the desired level. It is also a path to allow the Midshipmen staff to send Midshipmen to PRB who they feel lack the skills to become a Naval or Marine Corps officers.

If at any point during the MRB process the midshipman facing the board or the midshipman’s Chain of Command feel that the MRB process has become contrary to good order and discipline the process shall be stopped and the issues raised to the midshipmen’s class advisor and the unit XO.

b. The MCO will be the appointing authority for the MRB, unless otherwise directed by higher authority. The MRB shall consist of at least three voting members (an uneven number composed of at least two midshipmen (midshipmen LT and above or midshipmen who have previously held these positions) and one senior member (usually MXO but may be MCO). The board will also consist of one non-voting member who will act as the recorder for the board. The recorder will be in the midshipman’s Chain of Command (department head or division officer). The student and the members of the MRB shall be notified of their appointment in writing using the MRB Notification (See Appendix C.3).

c. To avoid conflicts of interest, only persons who have no involvement with the matters before the board may be appointed as voting members. If the MXO or any other voting board member has a conflict of interest, as determined by the MCO, the MCO must appoint a new voting board member. Members of the midshipman’s department should not be appointed as voting members.

d. The MRB outcome is determined by majority vote. The senior board member’s vote carries the same weight as other voting members.

e. The recorder, a non-voting member, normally the student's division officer and who is normally most familiar with the midshipmen's performance and conduct, is the person who prepares and presents the case on behalf of the midshipmen chain of command.

f. The recorder is responsible for assembling pertinent directives, interviewing prospective witnesses, gathering all available evidence, and conducting a preliminary inquiry in cases involving disciplinary matters.
(1) No later than two full business days before the MRB is scheduled to convene, the recorder shall:

(i) Provide the student with MRB Notification including the date the MRB will convene and general reasons for the MRB;

(ii) Provide the student with any and all documents that may be presented in the case against the student, including but not limited to the counseling sheets, witness statements, and a complete copy of the preliminary inquiry (if any);

(iii) Provide the student with a list of all witnesses expected to be called in the Recorder’s case;

(iv) Have the student sign AND DATE the notification letter and acknowledge receipt of all material provide; and

(2) Keep an accurate record of the proceedings and prepare the record for the senior board member’s review and signature of all board members. This summary shall include the testimony of the student, all board members, and any witnesses. A recorded or verbatim transcript is not required. The recorder should take sufficient notes in order to prepare such summaries.

(3) Ensure that a copy of the record of proceedings is delivered to the student no later than five business days after the MRB (See Appendix C.4).

504-1 The Respondent’s Rights before the MRB

a. Students shall be advised of their rights:

(1) To appear before the board. The unit XO should be informed immediately if the midshipman does not intend to appear at the MRB.
(2) To submit a written statement to the board.
(3) To present documents or witnesses in their behalf
(4) To review their record and all documents submitted for board consideration prior to the convening of the board.

b. The student shall be advised of the possible outcomes of the board, which include:

(1) No action
Extra Military Instruction (EMI), which will be decided on during the MRB. EMI is not a punishment and will not be used in a punitive capacity. The purpose of EMI is to provide a learning experience directly relating to the offense addressed by the counseling. EMI sessions will not be intimidating, degrading, or unduly arduous. All EMI will be approved by the Unit XO.

Punitive Letter of Reprimand. The MRB may issue a punitive letter of reprimand that will remain in the accused’s file while at NROTCU RPI.

Recommendation for referral to a Performance Review Board (PRB). The board may make a recommendation to the Professor of Naval Science to convene a PRB.

c. The student shall be notified, in writing, at least two full business days prior to the convening of a MRB.

d. The student may waive the two business day notification period or the timeline may be shortened when prescribed by the unit XO. If requested by the student, a reasonable delay in convening the proceedings may be granted and should be documented in the MRB proceedings.

e. Other persons outside of the Midshipman’s chain of command may attend the proceedings as observers if requested by the student in writing to and approved by the Professor of Naval Science no later than 48 hours before the start of the board.

504-2 MRB Procedures

a. The senior member will call the board to order and explain the basis for holding the board (e.g., aptitude, lateness etc.), presenting only the facts before the board. The student will be advised of the possible outcomes of the board from section 8-10.2.

b. The recorder will present the facts, to include any witness testimony or documentary evidence, which documents the student’s deficiencies.

c. The midshipman will be afforded the opportunity to make a statement on the midshipman’s behalf. At the senior member’s discretion, any board member may ask the midshipmen to clarify any testimony or statements brought before the board.

d. The student may object to specific board actions or proceedings, providing a statement as to why he or she finds it objectionable. Any objections will be considered and ruled on by the senior member and provided to the unit XO. If, in the senior member’s judgment, the conduct of any person interferes with the orderly conduct of the board, the board will be adjourned until order is restored. The rulings of the board are final with respect to the proceedings. The Midshipman Commanding Officer will endorse the report with a final recommendation and forward the Midshipman’s class advisor and the unit XO.
e. The board shall not be limited to only considering those performance shortcomings listed as reasons for the PRB specified in the student notification letter. Rather, the board will be allowed to consider and make its findings and recommendations on any additional grounds that are discovered during the proceedings. However, the student shall be afforded the right, if he or she so requests, to an adjournment for a reasonable period to prepare a response to any additional grounds not previously addressed.

f. After all evidence has been presented and all statements have been submitted, all persons, except the voting board members, will leave the board room. Only the voting board members may deliberate and, to prevent the appearance of undue command influence, vote shall be by secret ballot. A simple majority will determine the outcome. Upon reaching a decision, the senior member will reconvene the board (to include the student and any witnesses he/she desires) and announce the board’s findings and recommendations.

504-3 The MRB Report

a. The Report consisting of a verbal counseling report, written counseling report, and Letter of Reprimand for MRB Proceedings (Appendix C) will be prepared by the recorder, reviewed by the Senior Member of the board, signed by all voting board members, addressed to the unit XO, and copied to the midshipmen, the midshipmen’s class advisor, and the midshipmen’s student file.

   At a minimum, the Report of MRB Proceedings shall include the appointing memorandum, the MRB notification letter and the preliminary investigation (if applicable), all documents considered by the board, and a summarized testimony of each witness, and the results of any board vote (to include the number of dissenting votes).

b. The unit XO will receive the MRB Proceedings within two business days of the board and will consider the package in its entirety and endorse the board report, either concurring or non-concurring, with the findings and recommendations of the board.

c. A copy of the Report of PRB Proceedings will be given to the student. The student shall acknowledge receipt of the PRB report and be afforded two business days to provide a written response to the MCO and unit XO. Copies including receipts will be presented to the midshipman’s class advisor and maintained in the midshipman’s Student File.
CHAPTER 6 – ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

601. GENERAL

Participation in all phases of NROTC extra-curricular activities is considered to be one of the most productive areas for development of leadership. Through extra-curricular activities, the Unit achieves status on campus and NROTC becomes a valuable and treasured association for every midshipman. It not only enhances NROTC’s reputation but also provides a sense of camaraderie among midshipmen. It can provide midshipmen a little something to do when RPI academics seem to be too burdensome to handle. Everyone needs a break from hard work at academics and this section will give you some insight on what to do and where to go.

602. SHIP’S COMPANY ACTIVITIES

Certain activities are required for all of the midshipmen. These activities are designed to prepare the midshipman militarily and professionally to become officers in the Navy and Marine Corps. They include Drill, PRT, swim test, sail training, and others the CO may designate. This section however, is focused on the other aspects that can instill pride in oneself and the NROTC unit here at RPI.

a. RPI Athletics offers over 15 intramural sports of varying skill and abilities. The NROTC Unit has teams in many of these intramural sports including ice hockey, soccer, and walleyball.

b. Taylor Trophy Sports are held every year between the three ROTC units at RPI. In the past these competitions have included basketball, football, Frisbee, and soccer. However competitions are subject to change each year. At the end of the year, the Taylor Trophy is presented to the unit with the best overall record in Tri-Service sports. This trophy is held for the following year by the winning unit. The Navy should win this every year.

c. The NROTC Drill Team and Color Guard are a group of midshipmen possessing the desire to excel in drill and to participate in drill competitions. The teams are coached by the AMOI and practice usually takes place two or three times a week. Competitions occur throughout the school year in the form of MEC or Military Excellence Competitions and include places such as Cornell, Holy Cross, Villanova, and possibly even Tulane University.

d. Each year during the fall semester, the MIDN Ship’s Company conducts a combined Navy and Marine Corps Birthday Ball. This celebration is a tradition in the fleet, and is continued proudly at RPI. The uniform of the event is dinner dress blues. The event is similar to the Military Ball described below, with a ceremony added to cut the cake and hear the birthday messages from both the CNO and Commandant. The event is usually held midway between the birthdays (13 OCT and 10 NOV).
e. Each year during the spring semester, the military science departments (Army, Marine Corps, Navy, and Air Force) hold a Joint Service Military Ball. The uniform of the event is dinner dress blues. Beginning with cocktail hour, followed by dinner and dancing, the evening is a good opportunity to socialize and have fun with fellow midshipmen, cadets, and the unit staff.

f. During the spring semester, the NROTC Unit conducts Dining-In (mess night) for all members of the MIDN Ship’s Company. A formal dinner with a distinguished guest speaker, a festive atmosphere, and traditional and non-alcoholic grog for refreshment is some of the evening highlights. Punishments can be used for things such as altering your uniform; the uniform for the event is dinner dress blues, but many individuals choose to violate the uniform regulations for this one night only.

g. The Semper Fidelis Society is the Marine Corps honorary society. Those eligible for membership include any RPI, Union, or PLC student enrolled in a program leading to a commission as an officer in the United States Marine Corps or the United States Navy. The objective of this society is to prepare its members for their responsibilities as officers in the United States Marine Corps. This is accomplished through the dissemination of information pertinent to a better understanding of an officer’s duties, by the stimulation and protection of the high tradition and ideals of the United States Marine Corps, and by the cultivation of social virtues among its members. Semper Fi Society is conducted through both a PT session focused on Marine Corps training (i.e. running in utilities, humps, and ropes) and also classroom learning about Marine Corps methods such as land navigation and combat tactics.

603. RPI AND OFF-CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

While MIDN Ship’s Company activities are an integral part of the Unit’s development, students continuously look to these areas to provide social fulfillment outside of academics and MIDN Ship’s Company activities. They enhance the life of students and are just as important as academics.

a. Community Service is required by all midshipmen. The number of hours to be performed each semester is established by the MCO. Despite its being a requirement, community service can also be a social venue. There are several community service opportunities on campus and around Troy. For more information on Troy organizations seeking volunteers visit doso.rpi.edu/update.do

CHAPTER 7 – UNIFORMS AND APPEARANCES

Below is an abridged version of Navy Uniform Regulations for use as a quick reference. The full version can be found by visiting the Navy’s Uniform website.

701. CIVILIAN ATTIRE

a. Proper civilian attire (PCA) will be worn for any official unit business when it is not appropriate to wear the uniform of the day or when it is deemed appropriate to present a more professional appearance than Casual Civilian Attire (CCA). Examples include scheduled meetings with the CO or XO and all Wardroom events. PCA shall be clean, neat and in good repair and present a good image of the individual wearing it. PCA is conservative pants or shorts, a belt if the pants have belt loops, closed toe shoes, and a collared shirt, which is tucked in. Skirts shall be no shorter than 4 inches above the knees, heels shall be no higher than 2 inches, and non-religious head devices such as ball caps will not be worn inside buildings. Unacceptable examples of PCA are undershirts as outer garments, flip flop sandals, tank tops, midriff bearing outfits, baggy and/or revealing clothing, clothing with holes, sweat pants, pajamas, scrubs, and any other items prohibited under casual civilian attire under <Article 701.b>. The grandmother rule is a good rule of thumb. If you would not wear it out in public with your grandmother, it is likely not PCA.

b. CASUAL CIVILIAN ATTIRE (CCA). Naval personnel shall ensure that their dress and personal appearance are appropriate for the occasion and will not discredit the Navy. CCA shall be worn by Midshipmen any time they are not wearing the uniform of the day or PCA. Examples include classes on campus, trips to the grocery store, NROTC classes, meeting with advisors, and unit events outside of the Wardroom. The grandmother rule also applies to CCA.

Current styles and fashions that are conservative and in good taste are authorized. Tank-top shirts, white undershirts worn as outer garments, cut-off shorts and non-shower sandals are appropriate civilian attire for occasions such as picnics, athletic events, and other casual daytime activities, otherwise the above items are not acceptable within the confines of NROTC functions or military installations.
1. DRUG ADVOCATING PROHIBITED. Wearing or displaying clothing, jewelry, tattoos, etc., depicting marijuana or any other controlled substance or advocating drug abuse is prohibited at all times on any military installation or under any circumstance, which is likely to discredit the Navy or Marine Corps.

2. EARRINGS. Earrings are prohibited for male personnel in civilian attire when in a duty status or while in/aboard any ship, craft, aircraft, or in any military vehicle, or within any base or other place under military jurisdiction or while participating in any organized military recreational activities. When considered appropriate by the prescribing authority under <Article 717.c>. Earrings may be prohibited while in foreign countries.
3. BODY PIERCING. Not authorized while in uniform. No articles, other than earrings (one earring per earlobe) for women, shall be attached to or through the ear, nose, or any other body part. Additionally, body piercing is not authorized in civilian attire when in a duty status or while in/aboard any ship, craft, aircraft, or in any military vehicle or within any base or other place under military jurisdiction, or while participating in any organized military recreational activities. When considered appropriate by the prescribing authority body piercing may be prohibited while in foreign countries.

4. TATTOOS/BODY ART/BRANDS. Four Criteria will be used to determine whether tattoos/body art/brands are permitted for Navy personnel: content, location, size and cosmetic.

   a. Content. Tattoos/body art/brands located anywhere on the body that are prejudicial to good order, discipline, and morale or are of a nature to bring discredit upon the naval service are prohibited. For example, tattoos/body art/brands that are obscene, sexually explicit, and or advocate discrimination based on sex, race, religion, ethnic, or national origin are prohibited. In addition, tattoos/body art/brands that symbolize affiliation with gangs, supremacist or extremist groups, or advocate illegal drug use are prohibited.

   b. Location. No tattoos/body art/brands on the head, face, neck, or scalp are authorized. The neck area for purposes of this regulation is any portion visible when wearing a crew neck T-shirt or open collar uniform shirt. In addition, otherwise permissible tattoos/body art/brands on the torso area of the body shall not be visible through white uniform clothing.

   c. Size. Individual tattoos/body art/brands exposed by wearing a short sleeve uniform shirt shall be no larger in size than the wearer's hand with fingers extended and joined with the thumb touching the base of the index finger. Tattoos/body art/brands that exceed size criteria are waiverable provided they do not violate the content and/or location criteria.

   d. Cosmetic. This regulation does not prohibit cosmetic tattooing to correct medical conditions requiring such treatment. For the purpose of this regulation, cosmetic tattooing refers to medical or surgical procedures conducted by licensed, qualified medical personnel. Refer to Chapter 2, section 2, article 2201.4.d.

5. MUTILATION. Intentional mutilation of any part of the body is prohibited. Mutilation is defined as the intentional radical alteration of the body, head, face, or skin for the purpose of and or resulting in an abnormal appearance.

   a. Examples of mutilation include, but not limited to:

      (1) A split or forked tongue.
(2) Foreign objects inserted under the skin to create a design or pattern.
(3) Enlarged, gauged, or stretched out holes in ears (other than a normal piercing).
(4) Intentional scarring on neck, face, or scalp.
(5) Intentional burns creating a design or pattern.

6. DENTAL ORNAMENTATION. The use of gold, platinum, or other veneers or caps for purposes of dental ornamentation is prohibited. For purposes of this regulation, ornamentation is defined as decorative veneers or caps. Teeth, whether natural, capped, or veneered, will not be ornamented with designs, jewels, initials, etc.

a. Jewelry and earrings are authorized for females while in PCA but only one earring per lobe in each ear. Body piercing is authorized while in PCA but not while in uniform or during Navy functions. Tattoos/body art/brands are judged by three categories: content, location, and cosmetic. The content is limited to anything that does not discredit the Naval services. Tattoos/body art/brands are not authorized on the head, neck, face, or scalp. In addition they must not be visible while wearing uniform or through white uniform clothing. Tattoos/body art/brands are also not authorized if they are cosmetic tattooing to correct medical conditions. If you do plan to get a tattoo, talk to your class advisor beforehand, even if it is not visible in normal clothing. In addition, mutilation and dental ornamentation are prohibited in civilian attire and in uniform.

For Males there are two additional creases in the front. Each shall be perpendicular to the deck and intersect the button of the front pocket. 707. COLLAR DEVICES

a. Collar devices for the Khakis and coveralls are to be located 1 inch up from the bottom edge and 1 inch in from the outside edge. A good measure is to place a quarter in the corner of the lapel such that it is not off the edge of the collar and then place the insignia at the end of the quarter; DO NOT rely solely upon this trick, as it will not work for most officer insignia.

b. For the 3rd and 2nd class insignia the left and right anchors are mirrored. Make sure when putting them on that the bitter end of the rope is pointing up and outwards over the shoulder.

The centerline of the shank is to be parallel to and 3/4 inch from the outer edge of the collar. The lower end of the stock shall be outboard, and the stock shall be approximately horizontal. Marine Option Midshipmen shall wear the gold enlisted Marine Corps left and right collar emblems in lieu of the anchor insignia.
709. SLEEVE INSIGNIA

Class insignia on the left sleeve of the SDB jacket is to be located halfway between the elbow and shoulder centered on the front side halfway between the front and back creases, ensuring the bars are parallel to the deck when the sleeve is relaxed. The rank insignia on the sleeve is to be located 2 inches from the bottom of the sleeve halfway between the front and back creases on the outer half. The bars shall also be parallel to the deck. The star above the rank insignia shall be centered 1/4 inch above the last strip with one point facing down. 2 inches = ¼ inch

710. COVERS

Covers are to be centered and 2 fingers above the bridge of the nose. Combination covers should be clean, insignia should be centered and eagles pointed upwards or 'flying', chinstrap should be tight, and the visor should be polished.

711. GARRISON COVER INSIGNIA

The insignia on the garrison cover for the Khakis is to be located 2 inches from the front of the cover to the shaft of the anchor (center of the globe for Marine Options) and the bottom of the shaft (center of the globe for the Marine Options) is to be located 1 ½ inches from the bottom of the cover.
712. SHOES

Black shoes are required for SDBs and Khakis and shall be kept polished at all times. Make sure to strip new shoes and keep them well shined. Shining shoes takes much time and many coats. At first they will not be shiny but over time they will develop a luster. It is not recommended that a quick shine be used, as over time it will dull the shoes. White shoes are required for Summer Whites and shall be kept white at all times with the edges clean and dressed. The laces for all dress shoes will be tucked in when worn.

713. FEMALE - SPECIFIC REGULATIONS

Skirts shall fall no more than 1 ½ inches above or below from the back of the knee. Hosiery should be flesh-toned nylon, undecorated, and seamless. 714. UNIFORM ETIQUETTE

a. While wearing the uniform, midshipmen are required to act professionally and not in a manner that discredits the Naval Services. This means to walk in a military manner and not running or walking with your head down. All buttons shall be buttoned, pockets should be kept free of bulky items, and the gig line should be maintained, males aligned with the right edge of the belt buckle and females the left edge. Any items you do carry are to be placed in the left hand unless too large to carry in one hand. Naval regulations state that a solid black or navy blue bag can be carried as follows:

"Backpacks may be worn over either the left shoulder or both shoulders while wearing service working uniforms. Authorized colors include black, navy blue, and when available the matching NWU pattern (Blue/Grey/Black). The matching NWU pattern backpack is only authorized for wear with the NWU. No personal ornamentation shall be attached to or on the backpack." –US Navy Uniform Regulations, Article 2101.1

Note that these bags are allowed to be worn on the shoulders when in service working uniforms ONLY. When in dress uniform (SDB, Whites, and Dress Whites) any civilian bags must be hand-carried.

b. No part of the prescribed uniform or equivalent shall be worn at the same time that civilian clothes are worn, except for articles that present NO distinct naval appearance such as shoes, sock, or raincoats. Incomplete uniforms will not be worn. Uniforms shall be kept clean, in proper repair and sharply pressed at all times. All hanging threads (Irish Pennants or IPs) will be removed from the outside of the uniform. "Have an exalted pride in the uniform you wear and all that it represents. Wear it correctly; wear it proudly.
Salute it with respect when you meet it; behave in it in a seemly manner, protect it when it is offended or in danger. It represents the fleet, The Nation, your home and your family. It is a symbol of all that is dear to you and of all that men are willing to die for.”

715. MAINTENANCE, DRY-CLEANING, AND ALTERATIONS

Initial uniforms will be issued and alterations will be performed at the Navy's expense. Any subsequent alterations or replacement of uniform parts will be at the expense of the Midshipman as it is their responsibility to maintain the uniforms that they were issued. All uniforms should be professionally tailored, clean, and fit properly at all times. Uniforms should be dry cleaned in order to prevent shrinking. Patches should be also sewn on by a professional. CHAPTER 9 - PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

901. PHYSICAL STANDARDS

Each semester all midshipmen are required to complete a physical fitness examination. For Navy options this means the Physical Readiness Test (PRT). For Marine options this means the Physical Fitness Test (PFT). The PRT consists of; push-ups, sit-ups, and a 1.5 mile run. The three scores for each category are averaged to give the midshipman’s overall PRT score. RPI midshipmen are required to score “Good” (60) or higher in each category. The PFT is conducted in a similar manner. The test consists of pull-ups (flexed arm hang for females), sit-ups, and a 3 mile run. The following tables are the scores for the PRT and PFT, respectively.

b. If you are overweight, you will have your body fat calculated. The Body Mass Index (BMI) tables are too long to list here but if you wish to check yourself, you can use the following website:

c. If a midshipman is having trouble meeting any of these physical standards, he or she should seek additional help through the Athletics Division, the AMOI, and their class advisor.

905. SWIMMING QUALIFICATION

Midshipman must pass a 3rd Class Swim Qualification annually if they have not passed the 2nd Class Swim Qualification. The 3rd Class Qualification consists of three parts: a deep water entry, a 50 yard swim using any stroke, and a 5-minute prone float. The 2nd Class Qualification consists of a deep water entry, a 100 yard swim (25 yards each of front crawl, breast stroke, side stroke, and elementary backstroke), and a 5-minute face-down prone float with a transition to a back float at the end. Midshipmen will be tested during their Orientation Week. Swim qualifications may be conducted throughout the year to qualify Midshipmen.

906. ACADEMIC STANDARDS

a. Academically there are multiple standards that a Midshipman must meet. First, all Midshipman are expected to maintain a Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) above 2.5, a Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) about 2.0, and pass every course. Should any Midshipman fail to meet these standards, they will be placed on Academic Warning for the immediate following semester. In order to be removed from Academic Warning, a Midshipman must:

1. Achieve a minimum 2.5 SGPA and 2.0 CGPA.
2. Pass all courses and maintain satisfactory progress toward your degree within established program time limits.
3. Complete a minimum number of hours of Monitored Academic Study (MAS), per week. The number is at the discretion of the Commanding Officer.
4. Complete a minimum number of hours of Self-Monitored Academic Study, per week. The number is at the discretion of the Commanding Officer.
5. Maintain a study hour log and submit it to the NROTC Midshipman Academics Officer on a weekly basis.
6. Develop a time management plan in consultation with the RPI Advising and Learning Assistance Center and your Class Advisor.
7. Develop a plan for completing follow-on courses for those classes which you received a “C” or less, in consultation with the RPI Advising and Learning Assistance Center and your Class Advisor.
8. Meet on a regular basis with your Class Advisor to review your progress, including a review of your study hour log and time management plan. The rate at which you meet with your Class Advisor is at the Class Advisor’s discretion.

Depending on the circumstances of the Academic Warning, a PRB may be convened. Failure to be removed from Academic Warning will surely result in a PRB.

b. If any Midshipmen are having difficulty in any of their classes, they are encouraged to seek assistance. The Unit provides tutors for Midshipmen use in multiple subjects. In addition to Unit Tutors, Midshipmen may seek extra help by contacting their Academic Advisor, Class Dean, or Advising and Learning Assistance Center (ALAC) located at 2106 Russell Sage Lab, x6269. A full list of ALAC’s available tutoring sessions with times may be found at http://alac.rpi.edu/.

c. Midshipmen are required to complete all courses required for their Academic Major and must earn a degree in four years.

d. In addition, midshipmen must complete a series of courses specifically required by NROTC:

1. 6 credits of calculus by the end of sophomore year (Navy Options only)
2. 6 credits of calculus-based physics by the end of junior year (Navy Options Only)
(3) 6 credits of English (writing intensive)
(4) 3 credits of Cultural Studies/Diversity (Navy Options Only)
(5) 3 credits of American Military Affairs & National Security Policy
(6) Some courses may be taken at an outside college or university. Those earned credits must be transferred to RPI. If you plan on doing so, you MUST FIRST discuss this with your Class Advisor and Office of the Registrar to ensure the requirements are met.

For an up-to-date list of courses approved to satisfy these requirements, contact your class advisor or visit http://www.rpi.edu/dept/naval/www/Approved_Courses.html.

e. Finally, a series of Naval Science Courses are required to be completed:

(1) USNA-1010 Introduction to Naval Science - taken Freshman Year, Fall Semester.
(2) USNA-2020 Sea Power and Maritime Affairs - taken Freshman Year, Spring Semester.
(3) USNA-2030 Naval Leadership and Management
(4) USNA-2040 Naval Ship Systems I (Navy options only)
(5) USNA-2050 Navigation (Navy options only)
(6) USNA-2060 Naval Operations (Navy options only)
(7) USNA-2070 Naval Ship Systems II (Navy options only)
(8) USNA-2150 Evolution of Warfare (Marine options only)
(9) USNA-2170 Amphibious Warfare (Marine options only)
(10) USNA-4190 Naval Leadership and Ethics - taken Senior Year, Spring Semester.

907. SAIL TRAINING

NROTC RPI does not conduct sail training but there are sailing events that midshipmen can participate in. Talk to your chain of command for more information.

908. REGULATIONS FOR OFFICER DEVELOPMENT (ROD)

The source documentation for all NROTC regulations and requirements is NSTC MANUAL 1533.2, REGULATIONS FOR OFFICER DEVELOPMENT, and last revised 17 July 2015, which can be found below:

909. ELECTIVE SURGERIES

All midshipman interested in obtaining elective surgery of any kind which includes, but is not limited to corneal refractive surgery (CRS) or other cosmetic surgeries, must first contact their class adviser for guidance.

Elective surgeries resulting in medical disqualification will result in disenrollment from the NROTC program. The midshipman will be responsible for the repayment of all scholarships benefits to the Navy.
CHAPTER 10 - FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1001.Q: What is the unit’s attendance policy for midshipmen?

A: Midshipmen must attend all scheduled Naval Science classes, drill periods, physical training evolutions, formations, and special events unless excused by proper authority as specified below.

Anticipated Absence For an anticipated absence from a drill session, a special request chit shall be submitted to the midshipman’s Chain of Command no later than ten business days prior to the anticipated absence. Notification of approval will be given to the individual no later than one day prior to the date in question. In emergency cases, a verbal request may be made up the appropriate Chain of Command.

Illness In the event of illness obtain help at the RPI Health Center located in Academy Hall. No excuses for absence due to illness will be accepted unless the midshipman concerned has reported to the Health Center or has otherwise consulted a medical professional and has the attending physician complete a RPI class excusal note. To contact the infirmary by phone call 276-6287. Any midshipman who is admitted to the infirmary shall notify his or her class advisor and Chain of Command as soon as possible. The Unit phone number is 276-6251.

Unexcused Absence In the event of an unexcused absence contact your Chain of Command immediately. Fully missing any required function without one of the above excuses will automatically result in a "Class A" offense.

1002.Q: Where can I find information on midshipman activities and important documents?

A: Information for Ship’s Company activities and important documents can be found on the bulletin boards. They are located on the third floor Armory (Alumni Sports and Recreation Center) outside of the room AR209. Midshipmen are required to check the boards once every week.

1003.Q: How often should I meet with my class advisor?

A: Midshipmen are required to meet with their advisors at least twice each semester, though some advisors may require more frequent meetings depending on the individual. It is wise to check in with your advisor as often as possible. This informal liaison will facilitate communications between you and aid in the identification of problems before they become more significant problems.
1004.Q: What should I do if I have an interview with the Commanding Officer?
A: When a midshipman is required to have an interview with the Unit Commanding Officer, the interview will be scheduled by the student’s class advisor or the Administration Office, as appropriate. The midshipman should report to the appropriate advisor prior to the interview and will normally be escorted to the CO’s office. The midshipman shall remain at attention in front of the CO’s desk until invited to be seated. When business is completed, leave the office in a proper military manner.

1005.Q: What do I do if I want to make a complaint or suggestion?
A: For any midshipman wishing to file a complaint, make a suggestion, or schedule a meeting it is important that they follow their appropriate Chain of Command.

Any midshipman desiring to submit a complaint or suggestion to any superior midshipman officer or Unit Staff officer on matters affecting the functioning of the Ship’s Company shall submit such complaint or suggestion in standard letter format addressed to the appropriate officer. This memorandum shall be given to the individual’s Division CPO who will then forward it through the Chain of Command.

Alternatively, any midshipman may anonymously provide a suggestion or complaint via the suggestion box located in the Admin Room. The suggestion box is checked regularly by the unit staff.

When a complaint or suggestion is received by an officer of the Ship’s Company, that officer shall provide to the individual making the complaint or suggestion a reply outlining the action taken and the reason for taking such action. This reply will be provided at the earliest possible time and may be provided verbally or in writing through the Chain of Command.

1006.Q: How do I request a meeting?
A: All personnel are entitled to meet personally with any officer amongst the NROTCU RPI Staff. In particular, any midshipman may request a personal meeting with his or her Division Officer, Department Head, Midshipman Executive Officer, Midshipman Unit Commanding Officer, the Unit Executive Officer, or the Commanding Officer, to discuss in private any matter he or she so desires. Requests to meet with staff officers should be made through the Chain of Command, although certain exceptional circumstances do not require this.

Individuals requesting a meeting shall not be required to disclose the subject of the request with any person other than the officer with whom the meeting is requested. However, such disclosure is encouraged, since problems can often be dealt with at a lower level of command than the individual may perceive. Individuals desiring to see their advisor shall do so in accordance with the procedures prescribed by that officer. However, when the subject under discussion might affect the functioning of the Ship’s Company, the individual is encouraged to first bring the matter to the attention of his or her midshipman superior.

All such requests will be dealt with expeditiously. No request will be denied; and, under normal circumstances, the requested meeting shall take place within 24 hours of the initiation of the request or as otherwise scheduled. Any delays shall be fully explained to the individual making the request and to the officer with whom the meeting is requested.

1007.Q: Who is issued ID cards, what are they?

A: All Scholarship midshipmen are issued an Armed Forces Identification Card (DD Form 2N) (Reserve) and all College Program Midshipmen are issued a Uniformed Services Identification and Privilege Card (DD Form 1173). These cards are official federal documents, which must be safeguarded to prevent their loss or use by unauthorized persons.

1008.Q: When should I carry my ID?

A: Each midshipman shall carry his or her Military Identification Card on his or her person at all times.

1009.Q: What if I lose my ID card?

A: Each midshipman shall properly safeguard his or her Military Identification Card to prevent its loss, theft, or mutilation. Immediately report the loss, theft, or mutilation of a Military Identification Card to the NROTC Unit Administrative Office via the appropriate class advisor.

1010.Q: What electronic equipment are midshipmen authorized to use?

A: Computers and Xerox equipment are available for midshipmen to use in the computer room located in the rear of the Administration Office. Usernames and passwords will be provided. Computer and Xerox equipment use is only for official business or for academic purposes. Also available for limited use are the electronic classroom computers located in the room attached to the rear of the Wardroom, once permission has been granted by the Unit Commanding Officer.

1011.Q: What do I do with issued supplies and equipment?

A: Midshipmen who are issued government property shall properly safeguard and maintain all such items. Midshipmen shall report immediately to the issuing NROTC Unit Administration Office the loss of or damage to any government property for which they are responsible. The replacement of items lost or damaged through negligence will normally be at the holder’s expense.
1012.Q: What if the school sends me a bill?
A: If the school sends you a bill for tuition, do not despair. The balance will generally speaking be covered if you are under scholarship. It may take some time to post into your account but it will show up. Your room and board scholarship is for the average room and board. Your housing may be more or less than given and you must participate in a meal plan in order to receive it if you are living on campus. If your housing and meal plan cost less than the average, the remaining balance may be attributed to your account. Additional fees such as purchasing a laptop through the computing center or parking fees will not be covered. If you have more questions contact Admin.

1013.Q: What do I do if I do not receive my stipend or book allowance?
A: Midshipmen on scholarship will receive monthly stipend and book allowance during the academic year. If you are not receiving payments via direct deposit or getting the incorrect amount, contact the Admin Office for assistance.

1014.Q: When does service assignment begin?
A: Service assignment begins during your junior year. Midshipmen will usually declare their intended community the second semester. It is important to note, that though the process for service assignment begins during junior year, service assignment is dependent on your cumulative performance while in NROTC, not just your junior year. It is imperative to do well in academics, PT, and aptitude throughout your entire time in NROTC as this all goes into service assignment. The most common communities are Surface Warfare (SWO), nuclear (submarines, SWO nuclear, and Naval Reactors), and aviation (pilot or NFO). Other communities include Special Warfare (SEALs) and Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD). Contact your advisor for more information concerning service assignment. Marine Option midshipmen do not participate in service assignment while in the NROTC program; Marine Option midshipmen may contact the MOI or AMOI for more information.

1015.Q: What is service assignment?
A: The Navy determines service assignment through the following formula. A midshipman’s GPA, military aptitude (including PRT performance), major, and Professor of Naval Science points are all taken and factored into the formula. The PRT score is taken from the midshipman’s Spring PRT during his or her 2nd Class year. The Pilot/NFO selection also includes points from the Aviation Selection Test Battery (ASTB). The formulas are as follows:
Surface Order of Merit (OOM):

1016. Q: How do the needs of the Navy affect service assignment?
A: Service assignment is conducted by NSTC OD based on Navy needs and input provided by the student and the unit. Based on the specific needs of the Navy at a given time, there may be more of a need of commissioned Ensigns to be trained in one community over another. We are here to serve and the Navy may place you in a community based on its needs.

1017. Q: What is CORTRAMID?
A: CORTRAMID, or Career Orientation and Training for Midshipmen, is the first naval training for midshipmen. It is an excellent opportunity for midshipmen to be introduced to the naval services. One week is spent with each of the lines of the naval service, surface, subsurface, aviation, and the Marines. On CORTRAMID there are various items that are a good idea to bring, which are not present on the CORTRAMID checklist. Discuss these with upperclassmen and mentors who have already attended CORTRAMID. Midshipmen should make the most of the experience by learning a lot, and having fun. However, do make poor choices as it is not uncommon for midshipmen to lose their scholarship over CORTRAMID.

1018. Q: What other summer training are available to me?
A: There are a variety of 1/C and 2/C cruises that are available to midshipmen. Midshipmen may inquire about the various summer training opportunities with their mentor or class advisor. A couple of examples of 1/C and 2/C cruise are listed below.

- Mountain Warfare School. The Mountain Warfare Leadership course is designed to train in specialized skills needed to operate in a mountain environment. The course stresses leadership and self-discipline in a demanding environment and includes instruction and practical appreciation in tactics, survival techniques, movement techniques, shelter and tent group planning, etc. Marine Options do this instead of their 2/C cruise.

- Foreign Exchange Cruises. A highly competitive program, 30-50 midshipmen are selected nationwide to take their 1st class summer cruise as an exchange student with an allied navy. Lasting six to eight weeks, cruises with the navies of Japan, Germany, South Korea, Great Britain, Denmark, or Australia are likely. It is preferable that a midshipman know the language of the navy they will be training with.
1019. Q: What is the Mentoring Program?
A: It is a semi-formal relationship between under- and upper-classmen, aimed at improving personal and professional development. At the beginning of each academic year the CMC and ADMIN will assign 2/C to 4/C as mentors. Mentors will remain assigned to their protégés through their senior years.

The program’s intent is two-fold. First, it is designed to provide underclass midshipmen with an experienced “big brother” or “big sister” to help guide them through the pitfalls of life as a midshipman. In this respect, it parallels the program used in the fleet in which young sailors are assigned “sea-dads” to help them adapt to shipboard life. Second, mentors are held somewhat accountable for their protégés, and are expected to know about any issues they are facing. In this second respect, the program is a form of leadership training for upper-class midshipmen.

Most importantly, it should be absolutely clear that there is no chain of command linking a mentor with a protégé. While the relationship is assigned to exist, mentors have no positional authority over their protégée, and protégés are not required to follow the advice of their mentors. Nevertheless, open and honest communication is strongly encouraged, in the hopes of ensuring success of all midshipmen.

Rising 2/C Midshipmen will choose a new mentor as their mentor has graduated and commissioned. The mentor shall be any senior professional whom they are able to meet or talk with throughout the next two years; NROTC staff excluding the CO and XO, commissioned officers, professors, graduate assistants, etc. are examples of acceptable mentors. 1/C and 2/C midshipmen will, at a minimum, meet or talk with their mentor three times per semester. Advisors will track mentor/protégé interactions during semester advisor counseling.

SOP WDO

NROTC UNIT RPI INSTRUCTION

Subj: WARDROOM DUTY OFFICER (WDO) STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES (SOP)

Encl: (1) Wardroom Duty Officer Responsibilities
      (2) Logbook Procedures
      (3) Flag Folding Procedure
      (4) General Orders of the Sentry
      (5) Emergency Situation Procedures
      (6) Bomb Threat Procedures

1. Purpose. Establish the policies and procedures for the NROTC Unit RPI, Wardroom Duty Officer.

2. General. The NROTCU RPI WDO is the Commanding Officer’s direct representative after normal working hours. In the Commanding Officer’s absence, the WDO carries all of his authority. When given the order, NROTCU RPI will execute the WDO SOP in order to enhance the physical security of all NROTCU RPI spaces.

3. Mission. in

4. Execution.

   a. Commander’s Intent. My intent for this program is twofold:

      (1) To enhance the physical security and the state of police of all NROTCU RPI spaces.

      (2) To provide midshipmen a training opportunity by mirroring watch standing procedures they will likely experience in the fleet.

   b. Concept of Operations. The Wardroom duty is a rotating billet that consists of one or two personnel: a Wardroom Duty Officer (WDO) and an Assistant Wardroom Duty Officer (AWDO) when applicable. These two watch standers will know the responsibilities of the colors, stand evening watches, complete cleaning, and perform other tasks aimed at maintaining the conditions of the wardroom. In recognition of the importance of the watch, midshipmen must qualify to stand WDO.

   c. Tasks.

      (1) Midshipman Commanding Officer

         (a) Ensure the WDO watch schedule is established at the beginning of each semester.

         (b) Ensure night orders are passed to the WDO when necessary.

         (c) Train and qualify midshipmen to stand WDO.
(2) Watchstander: Execute WDO duties in accordance with Encl (1).

d. Coordinating Instructions.

(1) Uniform. When on duty, the WDO will wear the uniform of the day.

(2) Tour of Duty.

(a) evening Watch. The evening watch is set every week of the school year, Monday to Thursday, 1800-2200, and Sunday 1800-2000. The WDO and AWDO will arrive at 1745 to open the Wardroom.

(b) Off-duty Time. During business hours, the unit Staff is responsible for the Wardroom. The WDO will not be expected to complete tasks during the day, aside from those listed above.

(3) Area of Responsibility. The WDO is stationed in the Wardroom, on the third floor of the Armory on the RPI campus. During the evening watch, the WDO/AWDO must tour the spaces each hour, checking all the spaces listed below:

(a) Officers’ offices, including CO’s (rooms 314, 303, 305, and the other offices)
(b) Electronic Classroom
(c) Snack Room
(d) Classroom (AR209)
(e) Color Guard Locker (208)
(f) Admin and other Navy spaces on the 2nd floor (rooms 201, 202, and 203)
(g) Supply Lockers (Basement Gym)
(h) NROTC Library
(i) NROTC Boathouse and Sailing Locker (Basement Gym)
(j) Marine Option Supply Locker (Basement Gym)

5. Administration and Logistics.

a. Watch Assignments. Watch assignments will appear in the Plan of the Week (POW). Each midshipman is responsible for checking the POW, standing watch, and performing assigned tasks. If a conflict arises with an assigned duty day, the individual midshipman is responsible for finding a replacement, informing the chain of command, and, if the POW has not been published, also informing the Assistant Operations Officer.

b. Qualification. To stand WDO, midshipmen must pass a WDO qualification exam. The Midshipman Commanding Officer will administer the qualification exam. Unqualified midshipmen may stand

c. Materials. The logbook and WDO binder are kept in the Midshipman Staff Office, on the desk by the front door. The keys are kept in the blue lock box on the door of the Wardroom.

d. WDO Binder. At a minimum, the WDO binder will include:

(1) This instruction.

(2) Night Orders. Unit Staff and Midshipman Staff are authorized to add to the WDO’s duties any task appropriate for the WDO and AWDO to accomplish in one evening.

(3) Monitored study sign-in sheets. The WDO and AWDO are authorized to sign midshipmen in and out for monitored study, but they must also ensure that midshipmen are actually studying while they are signed in.

(4) Tutoring sign-in sheets. When a tutor is present, the WDO/AWDO will leave these sheets with the tutor, and collect them when the tutor is finished.

e. Logbook. The logbook serves as an official record of the watch. In the Fleet, the logbook can even be used as evidence in a court of law. Therefore, the NROTCU RPI watch stander must understand the importance of a logbook and learn how to keep one properly and professionally. Encl (2) provides specific instructions.

f. Flag. In all cases, not including any color ceremonies, the flag may be left on the flag pole. Public Safety stores excess flags if the current flag is unsuitable to fly. Encl (3) outlines instructions on folding the flag in case an event should arise and the skill set needed.

6. Command and Signal.

   a. Command. The WDO’s appointed place of duty is the NROTCU Wardroom.

   b. Signal. If required, the WDO will call the following personnel in the order listed below. Encl (5) provides more on emergency procedures.
